B. H. S. Scores Great Victory Over New Haven High on Neutral Grounds.

MALCOLM IN RARE FORM

Game Today Between Locals and Westerlys at New Haven Will Determine the Pennant Winners-Malcolm to Perform.

Hats off to Jason Malcolm and the band of eight Bridgeport High School lads who traveled to Milford yesterday afternoon dragging the New Haven High School boys through the mire, finishing up 8-0. Revenge is sweet and the locals took lots of it. Today's game at Yale field between B. H. S. and Westerly will determine the scholastic championship of Connecticut. If there is any team in the league Bridgeport likes to wallop it is New Haven. Deacon Malcolm was on the rubber for the local lads, being in rare form, allowing only five scattered hits in as many different innings. On the other hand Bridgeport played gilt edge baseball, taking edvantage of the gifts of Sullivan and Gessner and following them up with hits. The Elm City lads were dangerous in only one inning, that being the opening session. Starkweather led off with a double to right center. Lapides sacrificed him to third on a fly to right. Grodske struck out, but Seeley dropped the sphere. Seeley threw to first in time to get Grodsky, while Graether caught Starkweather at the plate on an atsphere. In the third with one out Harry Middlebrook walked and came all the way home on his brother Louie's hit along the first base line which Flanagan ran up on. Louie had the ball beaten out when Flanagan threw to Rapuano who covered the bag. Rapuano heaved the ball over Lapides' head, Harry Middlebrook scoring. Louie was ont trying to steal third. Malcolm tried to scone on Louie Middlebrook's tap to Rapuano but was thrown out. Lalley's rap to Gessner was too hard for the pitcher to handle, allowing Harry Middlebrook to score. When the betting began on the contest Hyland opened a ten to eight favorite and when this juicy price was heard of in the East, Cross' followers wired here amounts from $100 to $1,000.

it means a chance at the lightweight title, if he wins, and if he loses it will be the end of his meteoric rise in the puglistic world. To Hyland it will mean another chance at Nelson, and this is what Dick is hankering for since he was defeated by the Dane. Coffroth has promised the winner a July date with the champion.

The men were to weigh in at 133 lbs. at 10 o'clock this morning, five hours before the time to enter the ring. This weight pleased Cross. In his battles in New York he went to bed the night before a fight weighing 135 pounds and awoke in the morning at the lightweight limit. Estimated Distance Revised Schedule,

By EDWARD PAYSON WESTON.

Wells, Nev., June 25.—Just before last midnight it started to rain, but lasted only a short time. At 1:30 a. m. I satrted for Elko, 54 miles, arriving at Deeth, 20 miles, at 7 a. m., and at Hallack, 13 miles, 1:30 p. m.

The temperature being high, I will remain here until 6 or 7 p. m. I expect to arrive at Elko about 1:30 a. m. I will not stop, but continue to Carlin or further, endeavoring to make Battle Mountain before Sunday.

I am compelled to wear a coat in my night walks, it being cold. The mountain on both sides of me are covered with snow, and this is responsible for the cool nights, but has little or no effect when the sun is shining. I am in the best of condition, and hope the weather will not interfere with my progress. By EDWARD PAYSON WESTON.

SCHUMAN SENT TO STABLES BY ORATORS AND BATTLE ENDED IN 13TH SCORE A TIE

Bridgeport Outplayed Hartfords In All Departments, But Could Get No Better Than An Even Break

Bridgeport and Hartford battled for were easy outs. Flournoy doubled in innings to a tie in the capital City the seventh, with two gone but was 13 innings to a tie in the capital City yesterday and during the process of the play many were the exciting moments. Buckling on their armor the Fisher and Abrogast failed to hit safethe tail enders with Nolte, the wanderer in the box, went in to do or die. Their chief trouble heretofore has been Wanner did not connect. Evans pitched to do, they finding not the least difficulty in dying. In fact they have expired with such charming regularity that many of the home fans have en-tertained serious doubts as to whether they would ever succeed in doing the resurrection stunt. Yesterday saw a beginning of better and brighter days for the Park City boys. Let us hope the fight from now on will be onward and upward. The Courant says:

Hack Schuman has won so many games from Bridgeport this season that an easy victory was looked for yesterday. Hartford got a good lead, too, sending three men around in the too, sending three men around in the first inning. Tomorrow at the West End Flats the South Ends will tackle their old rivals, the St. Josephs at 3:30 o'clock. The East Side lads never did care much for anything labeled baseball from the South End, their meetings generally being for blood. The game tomorrow will be no exception to those in the past. As both teams are out for the city championship, it will be a toss up as to who is the winner. Carter will pitch for the South Ends with either Tom Lannon or Mike Lucia doing back stop duty.
